Serving the Monmouth County for over 35 years, the Monmouth Chinese School is a nonprofit Chinese school organized for the local Chinese-American community and for all persons interested in the Chinese language and culture. The School is controlled and owned by the parents of our students. The school curriculum is planned to provide for the development of the social, intellectual and language skills of traditional Chinese culture. The curriculum includes not only writing and reading and conversation, but also a wide variety of cultural programs.
